

St. Paul's News

Pastor's Corner

By Pastor Dave Heckler

“And [the angel] said to them, ‘Don’t be amazed; you’re looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who’s been crucified. He’s risen; He’s not here. Behold, here’s the place where they laid Him. But go, tell His disciples and Peter, ‘He’s going ahead of you to Galilee; there you’ll see Him, just as He told you.’ [The women] went out and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had gripped them, and they said nothing to anyone; they were afraid, for—”
[Mark 16.6-8 NASB]

That’s the original ending of the gospel of Mark: an angelic appearance, an announcement that Jesus wasn’t there but had risen from the dead, a commission to go and tell, the women fleeing in terror and astonishment, and “they said nothing to anyone; they were afraid, for—” an incomplete sentence. No trembling with joy; no “I’ve seen the Lord!” from Mary Magdalene, apostle to the apostles; just mute fear. It’s clear that eventually, they told someone, and they all saw the risen Jesus somewhere along the line, because we’re all here testifying to Him. But Mark doesn’t give us this. Later editors wrote additional endings to cover over his “mistake”— but Mark clearly didn’t think he’d made a mistake. Indeed, I’m pretty sure Mark ended his gospel this way deliberately, to make a point...

What might this tell us?

A number of years ago, over 50 million Facebook users had their personal information and profiles illicitly datamined by Cambridge Analytica, a British company that worked with political campaigns all over the world to misdirect, misinform, and manipulate voters in favor of candidates who were willing to pay big money for their services. Their CEO and chief officers were filmed boasting of their ability to do these things and to compromise political opponents through bribery and adultery stings, among other things. But the most scandalous part of their boast centered on what they were looking for in all those Facebook profiles: “People don’t vote for candidates because of their political stances or beliefs. They vote for candidates based on their hopes and their fears. And our business is to identify those hopes and fears and manipulate them to our clients’ advantage...” (And BTW, this is now standard practice in social media, so pay attention...)

It begs the questions that won’t rest even if buried beneath hours of Alleluias: “What are you truly afraid of— for yourself, for your loved ones, for our nation, for the world? And in what do you find your hope?”

For the women at the tomb, as for many of us, the thing we fear the most is change and the re-evaluations change always brings. Most of the changes I’ve seen in my lifetime have forced me to re-evaluate the entire way I see the world, our nation, its history, and the people around me; and those re-evaluations have never been comfortable for me. “The way we always did things always worked for us; why should we change them?” And truth be told, no matter what the change may be, it means that something in which we trust will have to die. (Perhaps that’s why we’ll often prefer to fight to the death rather than agree to change— especially if we’re well equipped to leverage death on someone else. It’s what the religious and civil leaders of Jesus’ day did; that’s what put Him on the cross in the first place.) And besides, the one thing we human beings have always been able to count on is the all-superseding permanency of death, the thing that ends all arguments...

But what if the dead don’t stay dead? What if death doesn’t have the last word, but rather life and love and forgiveness and resurrection? And what if that last statement isn’t just some nice heartwarming philosophical platitude, but alive in glorified flesh and blood and looking for us? That’s not just a little change on the loose; that’s Change with a capital C (or in this case, “CJ” as in “Christ Jesus”). And if even the smallest change is a little death for us, what will Change Risen from Death be? The apostle Paul puts it bluntly in 2 Corinthians 5: It’s a whole new creation, a whole new way of seeing the world and its people and our neighbors, especially those who differ from us. It’s a whole new calling in life— and all of them defying the death-dealing “ways they’ve always been”. “Why, that’ll be the death of us!” we cry. “This is the death of us!” the women might’ve felt...

“This is my ending; this my resurrection! Into Your hands, Lord, I commit my spirit. This have I searched for; now I can possess it. This ground is holy,” Kiraly Imre von Pecsalyi sings in “There in God’s Garden” of Jesus’ death and resurrection, the wellspring of our Easter celebration. And though this ending be the death of us (not to mention the death of our false prides, our false treasures, and all the idols on which we rely), because that death is bound up with Christ in His death, our own deaths don’t have the last word. God’s love for us in the crucified and risen Christ Jesus has the last word, and that word is life. And even if the women couldn’t bring themselves to say it at that first blush of resurrection, we’ll say it for them: Alleluia!

Yours in Christ Jesus our Lord, Pr. Dave

Worship in April: The Feast of the Victory of Our God!

“Hallelujah! Jesus lives!” is the message of resurrection joy that shapes and permeates our worship life together during the month of April. Here’s how our celebration of Christ’s resurrection victory will take shape during the month of April:

- ✦ During the Easter season, we’ll be using the traditional LBW Holy Communion Setting 2 as our basic order of worship— but with the now-classic (and beloved) Easter canticle “This is the Feast of Victory!” borrowed from Setting 1. Many of you know this setting by heart already, so feel free to sing it and pray it with the joyful abandon of those “born anew into a living hope”!
- ✦ Throughout the Easter season, our first readings will be from the Acts of the Apostles, Luke’s chronicle of the earliest days of the post-resurrection body of Christ in the newborn Church; our second readings will take us through the First Letter of John; and our gospel readings (except for the Third Sunday of Easter) will be from the gospel of John. For us as Lutherans, whose perspectives are so profoundly shaped by Paul’s writings and theology, our Easter encounters with John’s writings will be challenging, but they’ll also be a blessing...
- ✦ On April 21, the Fourth Sunday of Easter, we’ll not only celebrate Jesus as our Good Shepherd, but rejoice as Jesus shepherds little Olivia Pugliese through death to life in the waters of Holy Baptism. (If you don’t recognize the name Pugliese, Olivia’s mom is Jen Westervelt. In fact, Apr. 21 is Jen’s baptismal birthday, so the date’s even more appropriate!) Come share with Olivia (and Jen and Cody and the whole family) in the journey and the joy!
- ✦ Remember that we’re sharing in worship and fellowship together both in person and online, and sharing together in weekly Holy Communion. And we’ll keep on “livestreaming” our worship services via Facebook Live and streaming the audio of our services via our Free Conference Call line (857.232.0157, conference code 144261).

Monday Morning Bible Study

Our formerly “Thursday Morning Bible Study” has moved to Mondays! Come join us each week for our Monday Morning Bible Study from 10:00 AM-12:00 NN via Zoom or Free Conference Call! (To join us via Zoom, go to zoom.us, click “Join a Meeting” at the top right of the page, use meeting ID 370 014 7169, and if it asks for a password, use 119805 and you should be in. If you’re using your phone, these dial-in numbers will work to access Zoom: 929.205.6099 or 312.626.6799. After you dial, you’ll be asked for the host’s code, and you’ll type in 370 014 7169, then 119805 and you’re in. To use Free Conference Call [FCC], dial 857.232.0157, enter conference code 144261, and you’re in.) We’re digging into the Scripture readings for the upcoming week to discover the treasures that await us come Sunday. You don’t have to be a biblical “expert” to get a lot out of this study— so come on out and invite your friends to join you!

Check it Out: "The Bible Project"

At last year's Vacation Bible School, Rose Sutkins suggested that we check out "The Bible Project" on YouTube. The Bible Project creates free resources— videos, podcasts, Bible reading plans, and even classes, many of them wonderfully animated and all of them scholastically and theologically solid— to help you experience the Bible. Check them out at bibleproject.com, on YouTube at www.youtube.com/@BibleProjectPodcast, or download their app at bibleproject.com/app/.

This will reduce the appearance of deficit for 2024. She will recast certain monthly expenses on a monthly basis rather than as lump sums paid at once (eg, insurance costs).

Dementia Friends Information Session – April 21, 2024 at 10:30

A BIG thank you to Stefanie Bauman for providing an Information Session on Traumatic Brain Injury in March. A wonderful presentation with a great question & answer session. With respect to the questions that were asked, there was a clear concern regarding memory as we age. As such, we will be offering a Dementia Friends Information Session on April 21, 2024 at 10:30 in the Fellowship Hall. This session will give you useful information about Dementia as well as tools when interacting with a person who lives with Dementia. You will be introduced to the "Five Key Messages" and much more. Again, these informational presentations are NOT meant to diagnose, treat or take the place of competent Professional Medical consultation.

Synod and Conference News

- ✦ Our 2024 Southeast Penn Synod Assembly will be held on May 3-4 at Franconia Mennonite Meetinghouse, with the theme being “Chosen, Called, Sent”. One of the major things we'll be doing at this Assembly is electing a new bishop, as Bp Pat Davenport will be retiring. (We ask your prayers for the election process. We know that the Spirit will reveal the right person.) We'll be officially represented by Pr Dave and two lay delegates— but there's plenty of room for visitors as well. In fact, if you've never attended a Synod Assembly, you're missing out on a powerful experience; and since the Assembly's being held quite nearby, you won't need a hotel room or special accommodation. Registration is open— go to www.ministrylink.org to register. (Our Synod will also be livestreaming the Assembly on its Facebook page SEPA Synod, its website www.ministrylink.org, and its YouTube page @SEPA Synod – so you don't even need to leave home to share in the proceedings and the joy!)
- ✦ Our next Quakertown Lutheran Cluster Collaboration meeting is scheduled for April 11 @ 7:00 PM at Trinity, Quakertown's Annex Building. We've had excellent representation from all our cluster congregations in these conversations, and our synod's Co-Director of Evangelical Mission, Pr. Bryan Penman, is working with us to map out a process for us to deepen our sharing together in ministry in the Quakertown area. And we're already beginning to line out some cluster-wide activities for the summer months, including this year's Quakertown Cluster Picnic, at least one cluster-wide worship service (likely outside), volleyball gatherings, youth bonfires, movie nights, and the like.
- ✦ Our Upper Bucks Lutheran Conference is planning a “Lutheran Day at the Iron Pigs” on Sunday, June 23 at Coca-Cola Park outside of Allentown, with gates opening at 12:35 PM and the first pitch at 1:35 PM. Tickets for this event are $30/person, which includes a 2½-hour all-you-can-eat buffet, unlimited soft drinks through the eighth inning, and seating at the Picnic Patio along the left-field line. Children under 2 are free. If you're interested in attending this game, please let Kelly Shaak know (and please get your check in) ASAP. Make checks payable to “St Paul's Lutheran Church” with “UBC Lutherans @ Iron Pigs” in the memo line. (This way, Karen can send our conference treasurer Pr Bradley Gow a single check for all of us, thus preserving his sanity... 😊)

Scouts BSA Troop 007 News

- We're so thankful for St Paul's welcome and support. But right now, there's one more thing we really need to continue to survive and hopefully, thrive: We need more Scouts! The mission of the Boy Scouts of America is to prepare young people to make ethical and moral choices over their lifetimes by instilling in them the values of the Scout Oath and Law. If you know a parent or grandparent of kids from kindergarten to high school, encourage them to visit one of our Scout meetings on Thursday nights, or check us out at Scouts007.org.
- We now have a fully chartered Cub Scouts Pack 007 at St Paul's! Many thanks to Rich and Robin Beaumont, Sharin Babb, and John Hunsberger for their hard work and leadership in bringing this troop together and leading it. Currently we have seven Cub Scouts, three returning and four new; however, two Cubs may be dropping out due to their parents' work schedules. The Cub Pack needs parent participation for activities and camping. They meet every Wednesday at 7:00 PM at St Paul's.
- Here are some of our upcoming activities:
 - ◆ Our Cub Scouts' Blue and Gold Banquet will be held at St Paul's on Apr. 6 from 11:00 AM-3:00 PM.
 - ◆ On Apr. 14 @ 2:00 PM, we'll rejoice as Jayson Halteman is welcomed into Scouting's highest rank at his Eagle Scout Court of Honor here at St Paul's. (Jayson is our fifth or sixth Troop 007 Eagle Scout at St Paul's; it's a real blessing when your Scouting ministry produces so many quality Eagle Scouts that you begin to lose count...)
 - ◆ On Apr. 18 at our usual Scout meeting, we'll celebrate a general Court of Honor as our Scouts move up in rank and receive more merit badges as they grow in practical and leadership skills.
 - ◆ The Scouts will enjoy their Spring Camporee May 17-19. They're also preparing for this year's Summer Camp @ Ockanickon Scout Reservation July 14-20.

Supporting Our Ministries

Thanks for continuing to support our ministries here at St Paul's! Your tithes and offerings are much needed during this time; we're already in deficit mode this year, even with keeping our spending pretty restrained—so your offerings are especially needed.

You can financially support our ministries in several ways: [1] If you're already signed up for Simply Giving, you're already taken care of; [2] You can mail your offerings to the church; and now [3] You can go to our church website (www.stpaulsqtown.org) and make your contributions online, even using a credit or debit card. Whatever way you choose, your contributions help us continue to serve our congregation and community and build upon the good things God's doing through us.

April's Monthly Special: Lutheran World Relief

After a solid three years of break time, we're bringing back our tradition of "Monthly Specials" and "Noisy Offerings". Both of these are special opportunities for giving to help specific ministries in our community and beyond—some of them through the Lutheran church, others through community organizations. We'll target the fourth Sunday of each month (when we'll try to feature a children's sermon in worship) for our "Noisy Offerings", which generally will go to the "Monthly Special" effort.

For April, our Monthly Special recipient is Lutheran World Relief. LWR responds to natural disasters and complex crises, helping people recover, rebuild, and reduce their vulnerabilities to future shocks; and works with partners to rapidly develop and implement programming based on short- and long-term needs. Over the longer term, LWF partners with communities around the world to create jobs and develop productive, inclusive, and resilient economies rooted in agriculture, promoting sustainable farming practices so farmers and agribusinesses can improve productivity while conserving their natural resources. Please give as you're able!

April is Parkinson's Disease Awareness Month

Parkinson's disease is defined as a "neurodegenerative" disease, meaning that it affects the nervous system in a multitude of ways. Currently there is no method to concretely test for Parkinson's Disease nor is there a cure known. The approach to diagnosis is made by a review of the person's medical history, the presence of symptoms, in addition to a physical exam & neurological assessment. The treatment plan is individually based with an attempt to manage symptoms to enhance quality of life for the person diagnosed with Parkinson's.

Initial physical symptoms vary greatly. An early symptom may be a very slight shaking in one hand. As the disease progresses, a distinctive walking gait is often present – shuffling of the feet, a leaning forward type of gait, handwriting changes, and speech difficulties to name a few. Causes such as environment or genetics are suggested but not confirmed. Risk factors include age, sex – men are affected more than women, heredity or possible exposure to pesticides or herbicides. Admin Assistant Update

Dear St. Pauls,
 Due to some major life changes, I will be leaving the admin assistant position at the beginning of May. Originally, I was offered a full time position at my children's school, but after considering where my husband's career is taking him, we will be moving to Delaware so that he can pursue a career as a flight engineer and eventually a pilot out of New Castle Air National Guard Base. I have loved working behind the scenes and with everyone since August. It's been a gift to serve the church and congregation! I will miss St. Paul's!
 Blessings,
 Katherine

Kids, come join us for Sunday School at St Paul's from 10:15-11:15 AM on the second and fourth Sundays of each month. (In April, that's April 14 & 28.) We have room for all students age 4 through fifth grade, with older kids being helpers/leaders—and we have a great group of students ready to welcome you. Spread the word and join us for Sunday School!

Sunday School is Back!

"The Hand of God Shall Hold You..."

One of the great blessings of life in union with Christ is that the risen Christ binds us in holy and eternal communion with all His people who've died, enabling us to grieve in the freedom born of knowing that our loved ones are gone from our sight and for a time, but still joined with us in the body of Christ and alive in Him in far more than memory alone. So far in 2024, we've also said farewell (for now) to Mitsy Foulke, Sue Becknell, Edna Hottensen, Jolly Ekpe, Jodi Ritto, Dick Wimmer, and Gunars Berzins. Please keep their grieving families and friends in your prayers in these days ahead, that they may come through the dark night of their grief into the resurrection joy born of their Baptismal union with Christ Jesus our risen Lord.

Happy Birthday, Friends!

And Happy Baptismal Birthday Too!

We celebrate people's biological birthdays all the time, and rightly. But as wonderful as receiving the gift of life in this world is, receiving the gift of new and eternal life in Christ Jesus in our Baptism is even more wonderful (and best of all, it never grows old!). Why shouldn't we celebrate the anniversary of our new birth in Christ even more gladly? So Happy Baptismal Birthday this month to Rich & Jacob Baringer, Annastasia & Mervyn Brumbach, Mariana Constable, Christopher Hallman, William Hansen, Stephen Heckler, Kelly & Madison Reiss, Alexandra & John Schnabel, and Jen Westervelt.
